pared a statement defining the attitude of the department toward the appointment of women. The department wishes the announcement to go forth that there is no truth in the report that women will be favored to the exclusion of men, nor is there any basis in fact for the statement that women will not be appointed at all at all. He refused to discuss the rumor that seems to have gone everywhere that preference would be shown to women who were separated from their husbands.

"That's a joke," he said, "and should

Only last week the Civil Service Commission received a letter from a woman out West who said that if it were true that a premium in the hope of an appointment was to be given to women separated from their husbands, "she would throw the old man over in a minute." The offi-cials of the department have also heard from women who were laboring under the impression that there was a prejudice in the postal service against their sex. These fair correspondents express in vigorous language their opinions of the men who were supposed to be responsible. Denies All Discrimination.

The department announces that there has not been, and is not now, any discrimination against the employment of women in positions where they can properly be placed.

"It is the experience of the department." said Fourth Assistant De Graw, "that employment is practicable, are usually careful and faithful public servants. In of women impracticable."
